We Are Ready For CHRISTMAS

WE ANNOUNCE THE THOROUGH COMPLETION OF OUR PREPARATIONS IN OUR SEVENTY-ODD DEPARTMENTS FOR THE CHRISTMAS SEASON.

The enormous variety of the items displayed upon the several floors, selected with especial reference to the wants and requirements of buyers of gifts, makes this the recognized

Holiday Headquarters.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT FINDS EXPRESSION IN A THOUSAND DIFFERENT WAYS.

Everywhere appropriate gift hints greet you, and every department contributes in some way to the general holiday aspect of the store. Increased space has been given the departments containing the many dainty and beautiful articles so much used for gifts, while our great stocks of personal wear and household use—from which selections are often so wisely made—were never in better condition.

AND WITH ALL OUR NOTABLE PREPARATIONS IN MERCHANDISE, WE HAVE OVERLOOKED NOTH-ING IN COMFORT, CONVENIENCE AND SERVICE.

Our facilities for the saving of time in shopping are greater than ever before—thus enabling buyers to select with more ease and accomplish more in a given time than in most establishments. The store will be open until 6 p. m. daily except the three last evenings of the Christmas Shopping Days (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday) when we will remain open until 9 p. m.

AND SO WE ASK YOU TO SHOP EARLY—NOW AND IN THE DAY'S EARLIER HOURS.

The wisdom of shopping early is given further significance by the fact that much of the distinctly gift merchandise comes from countries too far distant to permit of duplication—and in these lines exclusiveness is very evident.

Taft Family Spends Day in Typical American Way.

MISS GRACIE MAKES DEBUT

First of Season's Buds Presented at Parents' Home—Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff Entertained at "Friendship"—Mme.
Crespo Will Join Ambassador.

The President and his family spent yesterday in the typical American way, and dined at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, with no other guests than the house party of girl friends of Miss Taft. Mrs.
Taft accompanied the President yesterday morning to the Pan-American Thanksgiving mass of St. Patrick's Church, while Miss Taft and her guests attended services at St. John's, where Mrs. Taft and her daughter are both members. In the afternoon Miss Taft and her friends took a sail down the Potomac in the Sylph, and greatly enjoyed the perfect weather on the "historic stream." Her guests included Vincent, of Minnesota; Miss Marion Crane, of Baltimore; Miss Eleanor Bon-ton, of New Jersey; Miss Phyllis Rice, of Massachusetts; and Miss Amy Hamilton, of New Jersey. The President and Mrs. Taft and Maj. Archibald W. Butt went for a brisk walk in the afternoon.
The prettiest and most practical gift to the President yesterday, next to the famous Vose turkey, was the handsome basket of apples ever collected in this country. It was a sample of every prize winner in the Apple Show now in progress in Washington, and consisted of sixty actual prize winners. The President's father's family were great apple eaters, and it is said that his house was never without a good collection of this beautiful fruit, and that the President and all his brothers have the same habit.

Gen. and Mrs. George L. Gillespie entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Gen. and Mrs. J. R. Brooke, who are at the Shoreham for a stay. The other guests were Gen. and Mrs. Michael Sheridan, Gen. and Mrs. McCreag, Gen.
George W. Davis, Miss Edith Davis, Mrs.
A. E. Bates, and Mrs. Baker.

Mme. Crespo, wife of the Mexican Ambassador, who expected to join the Ambassador here next month, accompanied by her children, has decided to remain with them in Vienna, where they have been for some years past and where the Ambassador represented his country.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme.
Bakmeteff were entertained at breakfast yesterday morning by Mr. and Mrs.
John R. McLean, brother-in-law and sister of the latter, at the latter's country place, "Friendship." The guests included a large company of official, diplomatic, and residential society in Washington.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary, to Mr. Walter Bruce Howe, of New York and Washington.

Former United States Minister to Belgium and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend entertained at a musicale yesterday afternoon and had a small company to hear a charming programme of songs by M.
Nabokoff, the first secretary of the Russian Embassy, assisted by Mrs. Townsend. M. Nabokoff has a baritone voice of excellent quality and sings with good style and finish in several languages.
Among the guests were the German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff, the Spanish Minister and Mme. Riano, the secretary of the Navy and Mrs.
Meyer and the Misses Mary and Mrs.
Andrew, Miss Edith Aldrich, Miss Southerland, the Charge d'Affaires of Austria-Hungary and Mme. Lowenthal-Linow, Mrs. Hornmann, of the German Embassy staff; Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Olney, Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Ellis, Miss Marion Wise, and Mr.
William Bowie Clarke.

Miss Amariella Gillett entertained a company at luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president general of the National Society, D. A. R., in her home in Sheridan circle.

Mrs. A. M. Blair spent Thanksgiving in New York. She went over on Wednesday to attend the opera and will return here Sunday.

Former Representative and Mrs. Davis Brothhead, of Pennsylvania, spent Thanksgiving with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. Maxwell Kerr Gilmour, at their home in this city.

Miss Edith Gracie, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Archibald Gracie, of New York and Washington, was the Thanksgiving bud this year and was presented to society at a brilliant tea yesterday afternoon by her parents in their Sixteenth street home. Mrs. Gracie was assisted in the dining-room by Miss Margaret Gale and Mrs. Lorimer Graham and Miss Anna Porter, Miss Adeline Culp, and Miss Mildred Bacon, buds of last season the one before, and the other the first debutante of this year. Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain, Miss Mary Howry, Miss Marguerite Caperton, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Miss Eleanor Pillsbury, Miss Elizabeth Pillsbury, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Miss Estelle Crane, Miss Lemir Gillett-Hill, Miss Elizabeth McCortney, Miss Elizabeth Crenshaw, and Miss Louise Walsh. The house was gay with the floral offerings of friends and admirers of the bud, and a decoration of asparagus vines and La France roses pertained in the drawing-room. An orchestra played throughout the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Gracie wore an imported gown of gray embroidered chif-fon of pearl gray over pale blue satin and a corsage bouquet of violets. Miss Gracie wore an elaborate gown of white satin veiled with white chiffron cloth, trimmed with pearls. Her hair was charmingly dressed and ornamented with diamonds, and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley and white orchids. The receiving party was entertained at dinner and a number of men were asked later for dancing. Miss Gracie is an attractive and accomplished girl with much musical talent inherited from her mother, who has been a prominent singer in amateur circles of New York and Washington.

The Children's Hospital was a magnet which drew a large company of society
